

Ranelle Bracy-Lewis, DO, is a double board-certified adult and child/adolescent psychiatrist. She earned her biology degree from Prairie View A&M University and her medical degree from Oklahoma State University. She completed psychiatry residency and child/adolescent fellowship at the University of Oklahoma. As founder of Be Well Psychiatry, she provides holistic, compassionate care for children and adults.