

BIO

Dr. Donald Peghee, Jr. was born and raised in Kansas City, Ks. He graduated from Oakwood College in Huntsville, Alabama with a Bachelors of Science degree. He attended medical school at the University of Kansas School of Medicine. Dr. Peghee trained at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology. Dr. Peghee is experienced in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology and provides quality care with evidence based medicine. He has incorporated aesthetic procedures that include microneedling, botox, fillers, hormone optimization treatment and laser fat reduction with body contouring. Dr. Peghee is currently Chief Surgery Department at Providence Medical Center and serves on other committee boards as well. He is an active participant in the community with organizations such as Greater Kansas City Medical Society, a physicians of color medical society, which he has served as President of this medical society and currently the President of Region V National Medical Society. In his free time, Dr. Peghee enjoys listening to jazz, exercising, playing pool and spending time with family.